MURDER MYSTERY TO INVOLVE MORE?

WHOLESALE KILLING OF 8 AT VILLISCA MAY BE A LINK.

LOCAL INTEREST IN CASE GROWS DAILY

Many Nodaway County Residents Knew Participants in Iowa Unraveling—May Defeat Trial.

The mystery concerning the murder of Nathaniel Smith and his 15-year-old son near Siam, Ia., in September, 1868, the disappearance of the $90,000 gold treasure, which has resulted in the arrest of four prominent residents of that neighborhood recently, and the uncovering of the part Mrs. Maria Porter of Quitman played in it has deepened further.

Before many days pass it is believed further murder charges will be brought against southern Iowa persons and that the mystery concerning the wholesale murder of a whole family of six and two other children four years ago near Villisca will be unraveled and laid at the doors of the murderers of Smith and his son.

This last mystery comes to light this afternoon, being forwarded directly to The Democrat-Forum by a special correspondent at Bedford, who is investigating the case. About four years ago there was enacted at Villisca one of the biggest wholesale murders of the middle west.

May Connect the Two Cases.

Joseph Moore, Mrs. Moore and their four small children and two children of J. T. Stillinger were all found dead one morning with their heads split open and their bodies partly mutilated by an axe. Detectives and officers of the whole state were placed on the case, but without a single arrest resulting, nor a clue of any strength being found.

Recently a detective has been re-employed to work on the Villisca case, with the result that there has come to light the belief, in the detective's opinion, that someone who took part in the murder of Smith and his son in 1868 also did the wholesale killing at Villisca, or employed someone to do the deed.

The detective believes that the murderer feared that the Moores or the Stillingers knew something of the killing of Smith and his son, and therefore proceeded to get them out of the way. This belief is further strengthened from the report that Stillinger is said to have gotten an anonymous letter after the murder, purporting to be from the murderer of his two children. It was unsigned.

Is Becoming Locally Interesting.

It said: "I am sorry I killed your two children. I didn't know they were yours. I wanted to wipe the Moores off the map." The Stillinger children were with the Moore children when the murder occurred.

The Siam murder mystery also becomes more local the more time the case is given. It has developed that many residents of Maryville and Nodaway county knew some of the defendants in the case or knew something of the mysteries surrounding it.

Ambrose Collins, a wealthy, well-to-do farmer near Quitman, is a brother to Mrs. Maria Porter, lone witness in the double killing. There were seven other children besides Collins and Mrs. Porter. The others reside outside of the county.

H. W. Webber, a clerk at Pearson's pharmacy, who lived at Bedford at one time, was personally acquainted with Dr. A. N. Galliday, the hermit druggist there, in whose shack $45,000 was found when he died seven years ago, and who, it is said, had some part in the killing.

May Defeat the Trial.

Ed Masters, 510 North Fillmore street, personally knew Bates Hunt-

man, Scrivner and others alleged to have been implicated in the double killing.

Miss Marie Grundy of Maryville has visited in the Scrivner home and knew much of the doings in the Siam neighborhood in which the mystery revolves.

The preliminary trial of the four men charged with the double murder is scheduled to come up at Bedford tomorrow morning. But on account of washouts on railroads and poor train service there is likelihood of the case being postponed, according to word from Bedford this afternoon. Mrs. Porter left Quitman yesterday, however, and went to Clarinda by motor. From there she intends to go to Bedford tomorrow to attend the trial.

SAY HE ASSAULTED A WOMAN

William Kelley Fought Bertha Reynolds Yesterday, Police Say—To Trial Wednesday.

William Kelley, brother to Levi Kelley, was arrested by the police this morning on a charge of common assault, preferred against him by Mrs. Bertha Reynolds. He pleaded not guilty in police court. His trial was set for 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Reynolds charges that Kelley, who owns the home wherein the Reynolds family reside in the southeast part of the city, began arguing with her yesterday over some furniture in the house. The argument led into a quarrel and the quarrel into a fight. As a result Mrs. Reynolds says Kelley struck her, slapped her, cuffed her and knocked her down.

HE STOPS RUNAWAY TEAM.

Charles Jones Plays Part of Hero in Stopping Horse's Mad Race.

Charles Jones is wearing the laurels today as a result of a heroic part he played late Saturday afternoon in stopping a runaway team, belonging to Yowell & Sons, feed merchants at Third and Main streets, after they had run several blocks, and upset the delivery wagon.

The team began running at the barn of J. H. Harvey, East Seventh street, ran south to Sixth, thence to Market and thence to Main street and south. The wagon was overturned on Sixth street and the seat broken. No other material damage was done.

OIL STOVE THREATENS FIRE.

Elmer Rhinehart's, North Davis, Endanger Home by Turning Wick Too High.

No damage resulted from a fire alarm turned in at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the home of Elmer Rhinehart, 524 North Davis street. But smoke from an oil stove, the wick of which was turned too high, filled the rooms and threatened to fire the interior furnishings of the home. The fire department responded. The stove was located in the kitchen. Mrs. Rhinehart had turned the wick up high in order to get a quick heat.

FEDS WEAK; LOSE

STANBERRY RED SOX WON ONE-SIDED GAME 23-4.

LOCALS GAVE UP SOON SO FANS ALSO LEFT

Home Boys Played Airtight Ball at Start But Misplay Was "Jinx"—To Strengthen Team.

It was the biggest crowd of the season—a $100.70 one—that witnessed the Maryville Federals go down to an infamous defeat by the Stanberry Red Sox at Federal park yesterday afternoon by the one-sided score of 23 to 4. It was done through extraordinarily good hitting and playing by the visitors and poor fielding by the Federals. That is, the crowd was big at the start, but many retired in the sixth and seventh acts.

The game started good. The Federals were playing airtight ball, hitting good and fielding better. But they began going up in the air the last half of the third inning and kept going from then on until the curtain rang down on the awful carnage.

The first two innings the Red Sox hardly had a look in and got only one within sight of the initial bag, while, just vice versa, the Federals sent two men around the diamond and another to the second sack.

Score Two in Second.

Scott first got on, on a single, then finished the course on a two-bagger by Hubble and a single by Brittain. Hubble also scored, both runs being earned ones.

The home guards got the fourth run in the sixth inning, it also being gotten by Hubble, and an earned one. He got a double and came home on a double by Keeler, who died. The third score was made in the fifth inning by Tilton, who got a single, stole second and came home on a single by Carmichael.

The Federals had another fine opportunity to score in the eighth inning, when Scott got a triple with none down, but two strike outs and a fly catch killed the chance.

It would be out of the question to explain how the Red Sox got each of their "skiddos" runs, but it might be said that they secured one in the third, four in the fourth, five in the fifth, four in the sixth, six in the seventh and three in the ninth.

Feds Weakened in Fourth.

The Federals began to weaken in the field in the fourth inning, when Keeler, playing second sack, let an easy grounder slip through him, and threw a wild peg to first, which allowed two to score and two more to advance around the diamond.

Frank Ham started the game for the Federals. He was drawn in the first of the fifth and Hubble substituted as twirler, not solely because they were hitting Ham hard, but because the team seemed to be divided, through a misplay in fielding a fly ball in the third inning.

Hawthorne pitched for the Stanberry team, and thereby made it the thirty-ninth consecutive victory for him. But he struck out but seven men, while ten hits were garnered off him. It was the Red Sox's fielding that was most creditable.

The Fed management promises a better lineup for the game here next Sunday with the team of Bedford, Ia. Negotiations are on for a player now with the Beatrice, Neb., team of the Nebraska state league, while two more are being tried for. It is especially desired to fill the weak places on the second sack and the shortstop.

Brittain played a good game yesterday for the Federals in center field, and only by exceptionally quick fielding and pegging, prevented Hinckley from stretching a three-bagger into a home run. Tilton also played well on first and exceeded his former records in batting by getting two hits. Carmichael also caught splendidly. The score:

HAVE NEIGHBORHOOD ROW

Ernest and Harry Reynolds and Levi Kelley Arrested as Result of Heated Arguments.

A neighborhood row, July 3, in the southeast part of town, in which arguments and vile words are alleged to have been flung thick and fast between the various participants, resulted in three men landing in police court this morning. They were Ernest and Harry Kelley, of some little notoriety.

The capture of Kelley was accomplished only after a chase by Sheriff Edwin Wallace near First and Prairie streets about 9 o'clock yesterday morning, in which Chief E. C. Moberly assisted. The officers were driving west on East First street, when they passed Kelley, walking. Having a warrant for Kelley, Chief Moberly, called him to halt. Instead of complying, he began to make tracks rapidly in the opposite direction.

Ernest Reynolds pleaded guilty, and got a fine of $1 and costs. Harry Reynolds also admitted his guilt and drew an assessment of $5 and costs of $6.10 by Judge U. S. Wright.

Kelley pleaded not guilty. His trial is set for Thursday morning in police court. On failure to give $100 bail, he went to jail, pending trial.

TO BOOST COUNTY NEW WAY

Commercial Club Discusses Agricultural Exhibits and Better Train Service Tomorrow Night.

A new plan for placing Nodaway county on the map by having a county agricultural exhibit at the state fair next fall and having township exhibits at the county fair here next month, will be launched at a monthly meeting and banquet of the Commercial club in the basement of the Elks club at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

A plan for insuring better train connections at Creston with the fast east-bound Burlington trains also will be explained at the meeting. While there may be some routine matters to come up, the big business of the occasion will be to insure a county and township exhibits and get better train service on the Burlington.

A meeting of the directors was held at noon today to decide whether to hold the meeting tomorrow night or postpone it on account of flood conditions. It was decided to go ahead just the same.

Whole County to Help.

Reports have come to Secretary W. R. Jackson that many of the leaders of the various townships will be in attendance and assist in getting the various townships to place exhibits at the county fair here. In fact, several specimens have already been received.

Dan R. Baker and R. A. Kinnaird of the Normal faculty will present the proposition for county and township exhibits tomorrow night. John Sewell will present the proposition to insure better train connections at Creston. J. D. Baker of St. Joseph, division passenger agent of the Burlington, has agreed to attend the meeting and present his view of the situation.

Maulding's orchestra will furnish the music. The banquet menu gives promise of being a fine one.

Does Big Mail Business.

The Field Seed company of Shenandoah, Ia., the last fiscal year spent $42,338.71 for postage in shipping out orders for seeds. This is said to be more than is done entirely by the post-offices of Maryville, Creston, Red Oak and other towns of that size.

Sticks in Ball Diamond.

A touring car driven by Wilford White of the Barnum Auto company became mud-stalled in the outer field of the Federal park base ball diamond yesterday afternoon.

Was Drunk; Fined $20.

Caney Race was fined $20 and costs of $6.10 in police court this morning, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness. He has been in police court before.

AT CRITICAL STAGE

BELIEVE U. S. MUST REJECT KAISER'S PROPOSAL.

DEFER ACTION A WEEK

Many Officials Believe Discussion Can Continue if Germany, in Practice, Respects American Rights.

Washington, July 12.—Formal study of the official text of Germany's reply to the American note on submarine warfare as it affects neutral rights strengthens the conviction of high officials that a most critical point in the relations between the two countries has been reached. Not only do they feel the United States must refuse to accept the German proposal for the future conduct of American citizens on the high seas, but the failure of Germany to disavow the sinking of the Lusitania, with the loss of more than 100 Americans, in their view has brought on a crisis, the outcome of which it is difficult at present clearly to foresee.

That there will be no action by the United States for at least another week was indicated. Several days will be required to measure fully the consequences and responsibilities which will be incurred by the American government in framing a policy to meet the situation firmly.

In the view of many officials, should German submarine commanders continue in practice to respect American rights, discussion could continue.

U. S. Demands and German Replies.

America demanded that the principles of humanity be observed. Germany declared the first principle of humanity is self preservation.

America placed responsibility for sinking the Lusitania and drowning neutrals on Germany. Germany disavowed responsibility, placing it on Great Britain.

America refused to admit the influence of special circumstances on the main issue—the loss of innocent lives. Germany declared its women and children are non-combatants and the conveying of munitions to the allies threatened their bread winners' lives. America declared the Lusitania was unarmed. Germany said the British order to merchantmen to arm and to ram submarines applied to the Lusitania.

America insisted on American right to safety at sea. Germany declined to admit that they can thus serve to insure the safety of the allies' ships.

America maintained that the Lusitania should not have been sunk until those on board had been cared for. Germany said they would have been saved but for the explosion of the munitions the ship carried.

America demanded precautions to safeguard American sea travelers. Germany said they could have it on neutral ships.

JULY RAIN ALREADY 6 INCHES

Fall First 12 Days Much Above Normal for Month—Was 2.50 Last Night.

Though there has but twelve days of July passed yet, the fall for that time has been 5.97 inches, or more than double the normal fall, according to records of J. R. Brink. The fall last night was 2.80 inches, or the heaviest for the length of time for the entire season.

The rain began at 9:30 o'clock and continued steadily until about midnight, then slackened, but continued intermittently until about 4 o'clock this morning.

The rain fell in such torrents as to cause veritable creeks on the streets and swelled streams to bank full and more in a short time.

TO PLAY OREGON TOMORROW

Maryville Boosters Also Plan Game With Clearmont Thursday—Will Meet Stanberry Team.

The Maryville Boosters will play the base ball team of Oregon at the Normal grounds at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in a postponed game, if the ground is in condition by that time, according to announcement of Manager Walter Hanson today. A regular game with Clearmont here Thursday and one with the Tarkio team Thursday, July 22, have also been arranged.

It is believed that the Normal diamond will be in condition for playing by tomorrow afternoon if it does not rain more in the meantime and some sunshine follows today and tomorrow.

The Oregon team is considered one of the strongest teams of Holt county. It is managed by W. R. Dobyns of the Holt County Sentinel of Oregon.

The Boosters will probably line up as follows tomorrow:

Wakeman, p; Nims, c; Finch, 1b; Vaughn, 2b; E. Scott, 3b; Palfreyman, ss; Adams, lf; Still or Emmett Scott, cf; Moore, rf.

A new third baseman may go in for the game tomorrow, however.

Manager Hanson arranged yesterday for a game here with the Stanberry Red Sox in the near future. The terms were decided on definitely but the date was not set. It probably will be the first part of next month.

The Stanberry team is considered the strongest amateur team in northwest Missouri. The manager, Hawthorne, who also is their best pitcher, has won thirty-nine consecutive games pitched. Stanberry won from the Maryville Federals here yesterday by the decisive score of 23 to 4.

BURLINGTON STATION ROBBED

Pry Open Window, Break Money Drawer and Steal $2—May Be Wabash Passengers.

The Burlington passenger station here was entered some time Saturday night or early yesterday morning and about $2 in small change was taken. Entrance was gained by a window in the east side being pried open, after the catches had been torn away.

The money drawer was then broken open and the small change taken. Some conductor's slips also were taken, but they will be of no advantage to the robbers, but a loss to the railroad company. A large pry found nearby indicated it was used to gain the entrance. It is believed that the Burlington burglars were the same ones that entered the Wabash freight depot last week.

Returns from Iowa.

Miss Ethel Kidd of Bedford returned yesterday from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Glen Breedlove of White Cloud, Ia. She also visited at Malvern, Ia., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dovenspike and family.

Guest at Embree Home.

Harley Teaford, trouble man for the O., is visiting at the country home of Mrs. J. V. Embree, south of the city.

HEAVY RAIN CAUSES BURLINGTON TRAIN ANNULLMENT.

STREAMS DO MUCH DAMAGE TO CROPS

102 River Floods Lowlands East of Town—Great Western Has Wreck—Wabash Trains Late.

The fourth flood of the spring and summer is now on throughout Nodaway county.

As a result train service is badly impaired, telephonic communication virtually cut off to many parts of the county and roads made impassable by bridges and culverts going out or being damaged. The flood comes as a result of a rainfall of but several hours length last night, but which ranged from 2.80 inches here to as much as six inches at Bedford, Hopkins and Bolckow, it is reported.

The Burlington has been unable to get a train over this branch or the Villisca branch today, and may not be able to do so before tomorrow afternoon, if then. The Wabash westbound train service is impaired, No. 1, due here at 6 o'clock this morning, not having arrived at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Great Western Has Wreck.

The eastbound train, No. 12, went through on time, but on account of washouts at Gallatin and Pattonsburg service was tied up.

The Chicago Great Western was compelled to operate its trains over the Burlington from St. Joseph to Maryville, thence over the Wabash to Conception Junction yesterday, on account of a freight wreck near Wyeth yesterday morning. Fifteen cars went into the ditch and much track was torn up. The line was cleared today, however, and Great Western trains are being operated on slightly tardy schedule today.

White Cloud creek is said to be higher today than for several years, and is raging through the valley, taking crops and damaging bridges and culverts badly.

All Rivers Rising Rapidly.

The 102 river, the Nodaway and the Platte are each rising rapidly this afternoon at all points, and fear of much damage is felt in many places. Though the 102 river has not reached any of the Burlington tracks in Nodaway county, the surface water flooded the tracks and washed out ballast and softened the roadbed.

The 102 river was hub deep over the state road east of town, between the two bridges, but traffic had not been tied up at 2 o'clock this afternoon. It was still rising and much drift wood was floating. Both bridges are said to be safe yet, however.

The Nodaway and the Platte are each bank full and overflowing many places.

Get License to Marry.

J. Irwin Elghmy, 21, of Bedford, Ia., and Mabel Bernice Bailey, 18, of Bedford, Ia., were granted license to marry here today.

TRIBUTE TO THE COW.

E. G. Bennett, state dairy commissioner, pays the following tribute to the cow in the 1915 Missouri farmers year book:

Little do we realize the debt we owe the cow. During the dark ages of savagery and barbarism, we find her early ancestors natives of the wild forests of the old world. As the bright rays of civilization penetrated the darkness of that early period, and man called upon the cow, she came forth from her seclusion to share in the efforts that gave us a greater nation and more enlightened people!

For two thousand years she has shown her allegiance to man, sharing alike in his prosperity and adversity, responding nobly to all that was done for her, until through her development she became an idol of the people of her native country.

In 1493 when Columbus made his second voyage to America, the cow came with him—and from that time to the present day she has been a most potent factor in making this, our own country, the greatest nation, with the highest type of womanhood and manhood history has ever known!

Her sons helped till the soil of our ancestors and slowly moved the products of the farm to market. They went with man into the dense forests of the new world, helped clear them for homes, and made cultivation possible for the coming generation—and when the tide of emigration turned westward, they hauled the belongings of the pioneer across the sun-scorched plains and over the great mountain ranges to new homes beyond.

Truly the cow is man's greatest benefactor. Hall, wind, droughts and floods may come, destroy our crops and banish our hopes, but from what is left, the cow manufactures into the most nourishing and life-sustaining foods—and is she not life itself to the thousands of little ones stranded upon the hollow hearts and barren bosoms of modern motherhood?

We love her for her docility, her beauty and her usefulness. Her loyalty has never weakened—and should misfortune overtake us, as we become bowed down with the weight of years, we know that in the cow we have a friend that was never known to falter. She pays the debt. She saves the home. God bless the cow—little do we realize the debt we owe her!

There is much dissatisfaction in painting here and so much complaint of high cost. There is a reason. The reason is you contract with the builder and pay three profits for a cheap grade of work. BRITISH REPULSE GERMAN ATTACK

Paris Announces Successes
Over Hostile Forces.

FRENCH ALSO MAKE PROGRESS

Compel the Dislodgment of Certain Elements of Trenches to the North of Arras—Bring Down Teuton Aviator Near Altkirsch.

WAR SUMMARY

The reports from the eastern theater of the war are meager in detail, and except for the fact that the Austro-German advance, which last week was moving swiftly, has received a check, little is known of the happenings either in Poland or Galicia.

It is considered probable that the long and exhausting battle which has been waged along the extended line in Galicia has brought the opposing forces to a temporary deadlock and that they are occupied in bringing up reinforcements.

Minor attacks, both by infantry and artillery, have occurred in Belgium and France, but there have been no happenings of importance in that zone.

Paris, July 12.—The French war office gave out the following:

"The British army repulsed a German attack which had gained a temporary foothold in some elements of the first line. The Germans were also driven out by an immediate counter attack."

"In the region to the north of Arras our troops compelled the dislodgment of the enemy of certain elements of trenches where he had been able to maintain himself along a line which we originally took on July 8."

"To the north of the station of Souchez an enemy counter attack delivered during the night was repulsed. Upon other sections of the front particularly violent cannonades are reported in the region of Nienport, in the section of the Aisne as well as in Lorraine. In the forest of Le Pretre and near the Moncel bridge."

"One of our aviators sent a German aviator to earth in the neighborhood of Altkirsch. He fell within sight of our lines."

Ship Zeppelins For Attack on Rome

Rome, July 12.—German Zeppelins, according to reports received in Rome, have been transported to the Adriatic coast of the Adriatic sea. Their object, it is said, is to fly across the Adriatic to Italy and to reach Rome.

The Italian government has notified the Vatican and the pope has ordered that the lights of the apostolic palaces be dimmed or extinguished at an early hour. The pope also has given instructions for the removal of art treasures from places exposed to damage by possible bombs.

DANIELS FOR SUBMARINES

Secretary of Navy Favors Big Sea-going Type.

Washington, July 12.—The story that he will ask congress for thirty new submarines is not quite exact, Secretary Daniels said. He wants more submarines, but will not decide how many until he sees the estimates. Then he will try to get all the government can afford.

There was also the question of type to be decided, Daniels added, he himself favoring the big sea-going pattern.

Experts, he explained, are trying to standardize a craft of the "M" type, about the size of the new German "U" boats. And if they succeed, so that parts are interchangeable, it will be possible to turn out two a week.

HAIFA IS BOMBARDED

Land Where the Disciples Taught Now Scene of War.

Jerusalem, July 12.—Mount Carmel, whose lower slopes have already been under French shell fire, is heavily entrenched by the Turks, although the mountain is sacred alike to Christian and Moslem. On the lower slopes is situated the town of Haifa. The German consulate in the town was bombarded by the French in retaliation for the Germans desecrating the graves of the soldiers of Napoleon.

Canadian Contingent Arrives. Montreal, July 12.—Word was received here that the steamer Northland, with 2,000 Canadian troops on board, had arrived at Plymouth. Among the military units was the Second university company, which includes a number of men from McGill, Toronto, Kingston, Winnipeg, Calgary, Victoria and other Canadian universities.

Russ Attacking Along Krasnik Line. Berlin, July 12.—A dispatch from Vienna indicates the fierceness of the struggle which is in progress along the Krasnik line. The Russians have brought forward strong reinforcements, probably from the interior, and are making repeated heavy attacks.

Catholic Prelate Dies in Rochester. Rochester, N. Y., July 12.—James Edward Quigley, Catholic archbishop of Chicago, died here at the home of his brother, Joseph M. Quigley. The body will be taken to Chicago today and, after appropriate services tomorrow, will be buried there.

JUDGE MANFORD SCHOONOVER.

JUDGE MANFORD SCHOONOVER is coming to Chautauqua, as he says, for the purpose of speaking to men. He is a man's man and has a man's message to deliver. He has passed through the university of hard knocks and knows the rough as well as the smooth places of human experience. He is a man of judicial temperament and has a strong grasp on the big personal problems. His plea for clean, honest living is one of the strongest being delivered on any platform.

SONGS WE LOVE SUNG OVER AGAIN

A Company of High Grade Artists in Program of Sympathetic Appeal to All

OUR OLD HOME SINGERS.

Singing the Dear Old Songs That Have Been Immortalized by a Grateful People—Arousing the Most Pleasant Memories and Full of Sentiment.

Our Old Home Singers. That is a name that gets hold of the human heart. It also suggests the character of the music to be produced and sounds like an advance guarantee of success.

These splendid vocal artists confine themselves strictly to the songs that have endeared themselves to all. Songs that mother sang. Songs of childhood and home. Songs that carry you back to olden times, when the heart beat young and life was a continuous joy.

The program is artistically woven together by a cleverly conceived sketch that gives the effect of a shingling play. It is a masterpiece of musical entertainment, and the company is said to be one of the very best ever assembled on the Chautauqua platform.

FLOOD IMPAIRS WATER SERVICE.

Overflow Causes Damage to Pumps at Plant—Was Off Several Hours.

The rapid rise in the 102 river this morning caused the impairment of the pumps at the municipal water plant. As a result water service throughout the city was shut off from 12 o'clock today until about 4 o'clock this afternoon, when it was announced service would be resumed.

The river, though no higher than several times previously, arose so fast as to flood the plant basement before the pumps could be gotten in order to pump the flow out.

To Hold Demonstration.

FOOD RUNS LOW IN PANAMA

Not More Than Thirty Days' Supplies in Canal Zone.

Panama, July 12.—An investigation ordered by Lieutenant Colonel Chester Harding, acting governor of the Panama canal, has developed the information that no more than thirty days' supplies of foodstuffs are available in the republic of Panama and the canal zone. The results of the investigation have been compiled into a lengthy tabulated report, which has been sent to the war department at Washington.

The investigation was made with the view of ascertaining just how long the available food supplies would last in case of trouble between the United States and some foreign power which might be able to prevent the importation of foodstuffs into the Panama republic and thus the canal zone.

CHICAGO STRIKE SETTLED

Work Immediately Resumed on $30,000,000 in Delayed Jobs.

Chicago, July 12.—The allied building construction material interests lifted the ban on the delivery of material.

That was the first important effect of the settling of the carpenters' strike. It means an immediate resumption of work in Chicago's building industry. The building industry in Chicago and Cook county has been paralyzed, and $30,000,000 worth of construction work has been tied up since early in April on account of the strike of carpenters and other trades.

Laramie, Wyo., July 12.—An aged Grand Army of the Republic veteran, whose ancestors were active in the revolutionary war, climbed slowly up the platform to where the Liberty bell was stationed on its arrival here and, kneeling, kissed the relic.

Silver Plate Returned.

Alexandria, Va., July 12.—The silver name plate taken several months ago from George Washington's pew in Christ church here was returned by mail from Cleveland.

GIRLS GIVE ATTRACTIVE PLAY.

Will Keep Tent at Maryville Chautauqua With Money Made.

The home talent play "Lucia's Lover," a farce comedy presented Friday night by the H. H. club at the Christian church of Pickering was well attended and was splendidly acted and staged. While the audience assembled a musical program on the reginophone was given by Miss Hazel Burks, and between acts Misses Edith Jones and Hazel Burks also gave a clever reading.

The first and second scenes were supposed to take place in Polly's room in a girls' boarding school, and the third act in the reception hall of the same place. The play had entirely to do with Lucia's love affairs. The title role was very creditably played by Miss Stella Wilson. Miss Nellie Morford made a very charming Polly, whose chief reason for fame was her rescue of "Chauncey," a kitten, who deserves special mention for its perfect acting.

Miss Eugenia Hull as Edith, who was too pretty to work except with her brain, and Miss Myrtle Null as Katherine, who was studying dressmaking, were much applauded for their work. Miss Bessie Ashford as Mildred, who exploited practical domestic ideas, and Miss Eva Burks as the stern and much dreaded teacher, Miss McGregor, acted exceptionally fine in their parts. Miss Ida Bosch made an attractive Martha, and won great favor while presiding as hostess of a chafing dish supper and 10 o'clock p. m. kimono party.

The club, which is composed of nine girls, will use the proceeds, which amounted to $17.50, towards keeping a tent at the Maryville Chautauqua grounds for the week.

CLEARMONT DEFEATS HOPKINS.

Fast Game Is Played, But Home Team Won by One Score in the Ninth.

The Clearmont base ball team won from the Hopkins team by the score of 3 to 2 at Clearmont yesterday afternoon. It was a close, fast game all through until a lone run by Clearmont in the ninth decided the contest. Hopkins had several St. Joseph players in the line-up.

EYE STRAIN

The press, both lay and medical, have been devoting considerable space to an explanation of the term eye strain, its discovery, cause, effect and its relief. In view of the many able articles that have appeared on the subject, one is surprised to encounter so many who have failed to grasp the optometrist's meaning of the term, because to the optometrist the world is indebted for the discovery that a person may have perfectly normal, even hyper-normal, vision and suffer intensely from eye strain. In fact, paradoxical as it may seem, only people with good or normal vision can have eye strain, because good vision by no means is an indication of good eyes, since one may and does secure perfect vision through very imperfect eyes, by straining; and this strain in almost every instance is an unconscious one. Here then we have the optometrist's definition of eye strain as that condition of eyes where such defects as far-sight, near-sight, astigmatism and their complications are present to such an amount that by constant, but unconscious, effort the eye muscles partially or wholly overcome these defects, thus securing good vision, which could not be obtained because of these defects if the eyes were at rest. To illustrate: you have seen the photographer adjust the focusing tube of his camera, working it in and out until he gets an exact image or focus on the ground glass, when he is ready to take the picture. His adjusting the tube to get the proper focus on the ground glass is exactly what defective eyes perform to get a focus on the retina. But this adjustment calls for exertion on the part of the eye muscles, which exertion cannot be applied unless an extra amount of nerve force is supplied; it follows that the part or parts of the system from which the extra amount of nerve force has been drawn must suffer by being depleted of the proper amount to perform its functions. Hence the reflex troubles, headache, nausea, stomach trouble, nervousness, insomnia and a host of others directly traceable to eye strain, but which yield automatically when the optometrist removes the occasion for straining the eyes.—Health Culture.

Oil King Celebrates Seventy-sixth Birthday Under Guard.

John D. Rockefeller celebrated his seventy-sixth birthday quietly at his home in Pocantico Hills, the only interesting incident being a visit from Anton von Kings, who came all the way from Chicago with a birthday cake for the oil king. Von Kings was very much disappointed after his long journey because he could not see Mr. Rockefeller and deliver the cake personally. Mr. Rockefeller has been greatly disturbed since the shooting of J. Pierpont Morgan by Frank Holt, and because of the attempt on the Wall Street financier's life he canceled his trip to Cleveland and closed his grounds tight. Mr. Rockefeller chose to lock himself up in his home because he feared some crank might appear, and when the news was flashed to the hills that Von Kings had arrived word was sent to the guards to be on the alert.

BRITISH VESSELS WARNED OF PERIL

Wireless Flashed to Mule Ships to Look Out For Bombs.

Washington, July 12.—Warning to look out for bombs concealed in their holds was flashed from the naval wireless tower at Arlington to the British steamships Howth Head and Baron Napier, both loaded with cargoes of mules for the British army, which cleared July 8.

Sending of the warning was ordered by Secretary Daniels upon the receipt of a message from a New Orleans newspaper, saying a letter to that paper, signed "Pearce," indicated that explosives had been placed aboard those vessels.

The radio message was sent broadcast over the sea and even if it is not picked up directly by the Howth Head or Baron Napier, some other ship in the neighborhood may relay it.

RAILROAD HEADS TESTIFY

Declare Western Rates Are Lower Than in East.

Chicago, July 12.—Eben E. McLeod, chairman of the Western Passenger association; E. E. Bevington, secretary of the Transcontinental Passenger association; and W. J. Cannon, assistant general passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, were witnesses in the western passenger rate hearing.

Their testimony was similar in fundamentals, although they introduced individual figures to impress the same points. These were essentially that experience since 1907 has shown that reduced fares have thrown an added and disproportionate burden on other traffic; and that in the low fare states involved in the hearing, fares are lower than in the east, where the railroads with better rates also benefit by greater density of population.

COMPARES GAME TO LIFE

Rev. R. L. Finch Considers Living And Base Ball Last Night at Christ Church.

"Getting Home from Third" was the subject of a sermon given last night by the Rev. Robert Lyle Finch at the First Christian church, in which the speaker used the national sport as a comparison for the real game of living.

The topic was skillfully handled by Mr. Finch, who employed forceful and potent expressions, saying in part:

"In the thirty-fourth chapter of Deuteronomy, the fifth verse, you will find the record of the death of Moses. Called to be the captain of God's chosen people, he proved his right to leadership through many campaigns, until at the waters of Meribah, in the wilderness of Zin, he struck the rock instead of commanding the waters to come forth as Jehovah had directed, and then and there forfeited his right to the promised land. Moses obeyed the rules of the game until in sight of the final victory, when he trusted in his own strength, and therefore may be said to have 'died on third.'"

"The value of well directed play to the American people can scarcely be estimated. In the great centers of population it has come to be recognized that supervised play is essential to the development of the child life along moral lines. The time is not far distant when communities like our own city of Maryville will count themselves lax in public interest if they do not provide trained leaders for the child life upon the playground."

"Professor Sargent of Harvard university says that by actual measurement the physical manhood and womanhood of America has developed remarkably since the introduction of the outdoor games into our high schools and colleges. The Englishman has been traditionally an open air enthusiast, hence much of the strength of the nation. There is therefore no apology necessary for the interest which the American business man is taking in these days in such sports as tennis, golf and base ball. Played according to the rules, by men who insist on being gentlemen at all times, in the great open air theaters where players and spectators alike are benefited, base ball is the real sport of kings."

Life the Great Game.

"For, dear friends, life is only a great game after all, and base ball is only a picture of the game of life. There are the two sides to both games, the offensive and the defensive. In base ball the side 'at bat' is seeking to make the scores that shall give them the victory, the defensive side is seeking to 'put them out.'"

"The most important aspect of life's game is man's relationship to God. Through the fatherly goodness of God every man and woman is in the 'line-up,' and we all have our chance to 'come to bat.' So far as we are concerned the final victory will depend upon how we use our chances."

"All honor to the player who reaches 'first' base in the game of life—the attainment of a moral character. That is a worthy achievement, but the player can easily 'die' on first if he imagines God is satisfied with that alone. Double honor to the individual who reaches 'second base'—the belief in God as Creator, and Father of humankind. But the veriest agnostic has such belief, yet 'dies' on second. There are those who have reached 'third base'—belief in the person and purpose of Jesus Christ, who must languish there because they have not accepted the means by which they shall be able to reach the 'home' station. More people reach 'third' successfully in the game of life and then 'die' there, than ever do in a game of base ball. To 'get home from third' is the stumbling block in the pathway of many people."

Every Runner Can Reach Home.

"But by the grace of God there is a way by which every 'runner' in this game of life may reach the 'home' plate. Nineteen centuries ago a crisis arose in the affairs of men. Emerging from ages of darkness, man but feebly groped his way in the darkness of sin and superstition. At such a time there strode into the social and political and religious life of his day a mighty warrior. He called Himself the Son of God. They killed Him for saying that then, but the world believes it now. Jesus Christ offered Himself as a sacrifice—with all reverence I say he offered Himself as a sacrifice—pitch hitter in order that mankind might have life at home and that life eternal. He died for us, yet He lives. And that sacrifice was made for the players in life's great game today, as well as for those of His day."

"Obedience to the rules that were laid down by this Master Player will bring us safely home at last. We must touch all the bases, and become 'obedient unto the heavenly vision,' as was Paul and Matthew and Elijah. Moses 'died' in sight of home and thereby became the most illustrious example of one who almost 'scored.' Anyone of us may become sure of the victory by absolute obedience to the spirit and rules of the game."

TO CONTROL THE APPLE BORER.

Means by Which Orchardists May Rid Their Trees of Wide-Spread Pest Explained.

"Worming" and painting the trunks of the trees are recommended to owners of apple orchards as efficient methods of dealing with the roundheaded apple-tree borer in a new farmer's bulletin of the U. S. department of agriculture. A heavy application of some paint that will not injure the trees but will remain in an unbroken coat on the bark for two or three months, is effective in preventing the female from laying her eggs in the tree, and greatly reduces the amount of worming, or the removal of the insects with a knife and wire, that must be done."

The roundheaded apple-tree borer, the most destructive of a number of similar pests, lays its eggs in or under the bark of apple trees. After hatching the larvae feed upon the inner bark and wood to such an extent that the tree is seriously weakened or killed. The pest is found over the whole of the eastern portion of the United States and as far west as Nebraska, Kansas and New Mexico.

In addition to fruit trees, it feeds on service, wild crab and mountain ash trees, which makes it advisable for orchardists to remove these varieties for a distance of at least a hundred yards from their orchard."

The female lays her eggs, one at a time, in an incision she has made in the bark, usually just above the surface of the ground. About 15 or 20 days later the eggs hatch and the larvae appear. When full grown these are nearly an inch and a half in length."

They first attack the inner bark, eating out broad, more or less circular galleries and thrusting out through small holes in the bark castings which form little heaps of reddish wood fragments around the base of the tree. During the winter the borers are quiet but early in the following spring they attack the solid wood, while some of them work their way up the trunk."

These last spend one more winter in the tree and the n. having passed through the pupal stage, dig their way out and emerge as adult beetles. Three years are required for the insect to complete its development from egg to adult."

Ordinarily, the beetle lives about 40 or 50 days. It is about three-fourths of an inch in length, light brown in color above, with two broad white bands, joined in front, extending the full length of the back; the underparts and front of the head are white.

The females rarely fly any considerable distance, so that if the immediate vicinity of an orchard can be kept free from them, there is little danger of a serious infestation."

The most common method of ridding an orchard of these pests is to cut away the bark sufficiently to trace the burrows made by the borer. A hooked wire is then inserted into the burrow and the insect pulled out. If made with care, the wound in the tree caused by this process will heal readily."

The castings at the base of the tree serve as an indication of the presence of the borers. Where the burrows are curved or obstructed in some way so that the wire can not be inserted, cotton batting dipped in carbon bisulphid should be inserted and the hole then plugged with moist earth. The gas from the carbon bisulphid will penetrate all parts of the burrow and kill the borer."

In addition to worming, as this process is called, paint is often used to prevent the beetles laying their eggs. Pure white lead and raw linseed oil, mixed rather thick, will not injure the trees, and when applied to young, smooth bark, will form a protective coat during the egg-laying season."

It is probable that this is a more effective method than wrapping the trees with building paper, cotton batting, cloth or other materials sometimes used for this purpose."

Before painting, however, the earth should be removed from the base of the tree for a depth of from 3 to 4 inches. The surface of the trunk thus exposed should be first scraped and painted and the earth then replaced. This is necessary, for the beetle occasionally lays her eggs under instead of above the ground."

MURDER MYSTERY TO INVOLVE MORE?

WHOLESALE KILLING OF 8 AT VILLISCA MAY BE A LINK.

LOCAL INTEREST IN CASE GROWS DAILY

Many Nodaway County Residents Knew Participants in Iowa Unraveling—May Defeat Trial.

The mystery concerning the murder of Nathaniel Smith and his 15-year-old son near Siam, Ia., in September, 1868, the disappearance of the $90,000 gold treasure, which has resulted in the arrest of four prominent residents of that neighborhood recently, and the uncovering of the part Mrs. Maria Porter of Quitman played in it has deepened further.

Before many days pass it is believed further murder charges will be brought against southern Iowa persons and that the mystery concerning the wholesale murder of a whole family of six and two other children four years ago near Villisca will be unraveled and laid at the doors of the murderers of Smith and his son.

This last mystery comes to light this afternoon, being forwarded directly to The Democrat-Forum by a special correspondent at Bedford, who is investigating the case. About four years ago there was enacted at Villisca one of the biggest wholesale murders of the middle west.

May Connect the Two Cases.

Joseph Moore, Mrs. Moore and their four small children and two children of J. T. Stillinger all found dead one morning with their heads split open and their bodies partly mutilated by an axe. Detectives and officers of the whole state were placed on the case, but without a single arrest resulting, nor a clue of any strength being found.

Recently a detective has been re-employed to work on the Villisca case, with the result that there has come to light the belief, in the detective's opinion, that someone who took part in the murder of Smith and his son in 1868 also did the wholesale killing at Villisca, or employed someone to do the deed.

The detective believes that the murderer feared that the Moores or the Stillingers knew something of the killing of Smith and his son, and therefore proceeded to get them out of the way. This belief is further strengthened from the report that Stillinger is said to have gotten an anonymous letter after the murder, purporting to be from the murderer of his two children. It was unsigned.

Is Becoming Locally Interesting.

It said: "I am sorry I killed your two children. I didn't know they were yours. I wanted to wipe the Moore's off the map." The Stillinger children were with the Moore children when the murder occurred.

The Siam murder mystery also becomes more local the more time the case is given. It has developed that many residents of Maryville and Nodaway county knew some of the defendants in the case or knew something of the mysteries surrounding it.

Ambrose Collins, a wealthy, well-to-do farmer near Quitman, is a brother to Mrs. Maria Porter, lone witness in the double killing. There were seven other children besides Collins and Mrs. Porter. The others reside outside of the county.

H. W. Webber, a clerk at Pearson's pharmacy, who lived at Bedford at one time, was personally acquainted with Dr. A. N. Galliday, the hermit druggist there, in whose shack $45,000 was found when he died seven years ago, and who, it is said, had some part in the killing.

May Defeat the Trial.

Ed Masters, 510 North Fillmore street, personally knew Bates Hunt-

man, Scrivner and others alleged to have been implicated in the double killing.

Miss Marie Grundy of Maryville has visited in the Scrivner home and knew much of the doings in the Siam neighborhood in which the mystery revolves.

The preliminary trial of the four men charged with the double murder is scheduled to come up at Bedford tomorrow morning. But on account of washouts on railroads and poor train service there is likelihood of the case being postponed, according to word from Bedford this afternoon. Mrs. Porter left Quitman yesterday, however, and went to Clarinda by motor. From there she intends to go to Bedford tomorrow to attend the trial.

William Kelley Fought Bertha Reynolds Yesterday, Police Say—To Trial Wednesday.

William Kelley, brother to Levi Kelley, was arrested by the police this morning on a charge of common assault, preferred against him by Mrs. Bertha Reynolds. He pleaded not guilty in police court. His trial was set for 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Reynolds charges that Kelley, who owns the home wherein the Reynolds family reside in the southeast part of the city, began arguing with her yesterday over some furniture in the house. The argument led into a quarrel and the quarrel into a fight. As a result Mrs. Reynolds says Kelley struck her, slapped her, cuffed her and knocked her down.

STANBERRY RED SOX WON ONE-SIDED GAME 23-4.

LOCALS GAVE UP SOON SO FANS ALSO LEFT

Home Boys Played Airtight Ball at Start But Misplay Was "Jinx"—To Strengthen Team.

It was the biggest crowd of the season—a $100.70 one—that witnessed the Maryville Federals go down to an infamous defeat by the Stanberry Red Sox at Federal park yesterday afternoon by the one-sided score of 23 to 4. It was done through extraordinarily good hitting and playing by the visitors and poor fielding by the Federals. That is, the crowd was big at the start, but many retired in the sixth and seventh acts.

The game started good. The Federals were playing airtight ball, hitting good and fielding better. But they began going up in the air the last half of the third inning and kept going from then on until the curtain rang down on the awful carnage.

The first two innings the Red Sox hardly had a look in and got only one within sight of the initial bag, while, just vice versa, the Federals sent two men around the diamond and got another to the second sack.

Score Two in Second.

Scott first got on, on a single, then finished the course on a two-bagger by Hubble and a single by Brittain. Hubble also scored, both runs being earned ones.

The home guards got the fourth run in the sixth inning, it also being gotten by Hubble, and an earned one. He got a double and came home on a double by Keeler, who died. The third score was made in the fifth inning by Tilson, who got a single, stole second and came home on a single by Carmichael.

The Federals had another fine opportunity to score in the eighth inning, when Scott got a triple with none down, but two strike outs and a fly catch killed the chance.

It would be out of the question to explain how the Red Sox got each of their "skidoo" runs, but it might be said that they secured one in the third, four in the fourth, five in the fifth, four in the sixth, six in the seventh and three in the ninth.

Feds Weakened in Fourth.

The Federals began to weaken in the field in the fourth inning, when Keeler, playing second sack, let an easy grounder slip through him, and threw a wild peg to first, which allowed two to score and two more to advance around the diamond.

Frank Ham started the game for the Federals. He was drawn in the first of the fifth and Hubble substituted as twirler, not solely because they were hitting Ham hard, but because the team seemed to be divided, through a misplay in fielding a fly ball in the third inning.

Hawthorne pitched for the Stanberry team, and thereby made it the thirteenth consecutive victory for him. But he struck out but seven men, while ten hits were garnered off him. It was the Red Sox's fielding that was most creditable.

The Fed management promises a better lineup for the game here next Sunday with the team of Bedford, Ia. Negotiations are on for a player now with the Beatrice, Neb., team of the Nebraska state league, while two more are being tried for. It is especially desired to fill the weak places on the second sack and the shortstop.

Brittain played a good game yesterday for the Federals in center field, and only by exceptionally quick fielding and pegging, prevented Hinckley from stretching a three-bagger into a home run. Tilson also played well on first and exceeded his former records in batting by getting two hits. Carmichael also caught splendidly. The score:

HAVE NEIGHBORHOOD ROW

Ernest and Harry Reynolds and Levi Kelley Arrested as Result of Heated Arguments.

A neighborhood row, July 3, in the southeast part of town, in which arguments and vile words are alleged to have been flung thick and fast between the various participants, resulted in three men landing in police court this morning. They were Ernest and Harry Kelley, of some little notoriety.

The capture of Kelley was accomplished only after a chase by Sheriff Edwin Wallace near First and Prairie streets about 9 o'clock yesterday morning, in which Chief E. C. Moberly assisted. The officers were driving west on East First street, when they passed Kelley, walking. Having a warrant for Kelley, Chief Moberly, called him to halt. Instead of complying, he began to make tracks rapidly in the opposite direction.

Ernest Reynolds pleaded guilty, and got a fine of $1 and costs. Harry Reynolds also admitted his guilt and drew an assessment of $5 and costs of $6.10 by Judge U. S. Wright.

Kelley pleaded not guilty. His trial is set for Thursday morning in police court. On failure to give $100 bail, he went to jail, pending trial.

TO BOOST COUNTY NEW WAY

Commercial Club Discusses Agricultural Exhibits and Better Train Service Tomorrow Night.

A new plan for placing Nodaway county on the map by having a county agricultural exhibit at the state fair next fall and having township exhibits at the county fair here next month, will be launched at a monthly meeting and banquet of the Commercial club in the basement of the Elks club at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

A plan for insuring better train connections at Creston with the fast east-bound Burlington trains also will be explained at the meeting. While there may be some routine matters to come up, the big business of the occasion will be to insure a county and township exhibits and get better train service on the Burlington.

A meeting of the directors was held at noon today to decide whether to hold the meeting tomorrow night or postpone it on account of flood conditions. It was decided to go ahead just the same.

Whole County to Help.

Reports have come to Secretary W. R. Jackson that many of the leaders of the various townships will be in attendance and assist in getting the various townships to place exhibits at the county fair here. In fact, several specimens have already been received.

Dan R. Baker and R. A. Kinnaird of the Normal faculty will present the proposition for county and township exhibits tomorrow night. John Sewell will present the proposition to insure better train connections at Creston. J. D. Baker of St. Joseph, division passenger agent of the Burlington, has agreed to attend the meeting and present his view of the situation.

Maulding's orchestra will furnish the music. The banquet menu gives promise of being a fine one.

Does Big Mail Business.

The Field Seed company of Shenandoah, Ia., the last fiscal year spent $42,338.71 for postage in shipping out orders for seeds. This is said to be more than is done entirely by the post-offices of Maryville, Creston, Red Oak and other towns of that size.

AT CRITICAL STAGE

BELIEVE U. S. MUST REJECT KAISER'S PROPOSAL.

DEFER ACTION A WEEK

Many Officials Believe Discussion Can Continue if Germany, in Practice, Respects American Rights.

Washington, July 12.—Formal study of the official text of Germany's reply to the American note on submarine warfare as it affects neutral rights strengthens the conviction of high officials that a most critical point in the relations between the two countries has been reached. Not only do they feel the United States must refuse to accept the German proposals for the future conduct of American citizens on the high seas, but the failure of Germany to disavow the sinking of the Lusitania, with the loss of more than 100 Americans, in their view has brought on a crisis, the outcome of which it is difficult at present clearly to foresee.

That there will be no action by the United States for at least another week was indicated. Several days will be required to measure fully the consequences and responsibilities which will be incurred by the American government in framing a policy to meet the situation firmly.

In the view of many officials, should German submarine commanders continue in practice to respect American rights, discussion could continue.

U. S. Demands and German Replies. America demanded that the principles of humanity be observed. Germany declared the first principle of humanity is self preservation.

America placed responsibility for sinking the Lusitania and drowning neutrals on Germany. Germany disavowed responsibility, placing it on Great Britain.

America refused to admit the influence of special circumstances on the main issue—the loss of innocent lives. Germany declared its women and children are noncombatants and the conveying of munitions to the allies threatened their bread winners' lives. America declared the Lusitania was unarmed. Germany said the British order to merchantmen to arm and to ram submarines applied to the Lusitania.

America insisted on Americans' right to safety at sea. Germany declined to admit that they can thus serve to insure the safety of the allies' ships.

America maintained that the Lusitania should not have been sunk until those on board had been cared for. Germany said they would have been saved but for the explosion of the munitions the ship carried.

America demanded precautions to safeguard American sea travelers. Germany said they could have it on neutral ships.

America, in substance, asked cessation of submarine warfare. Germany declared it its only effective means of reprisal against the allies.

Fall First 12 Days Much Above Normal for Month—Was 2.80 Last Night.

Though there has but twelve days of July passed yet, the fall for that time has been 5.97 inches, or more than double the normal fall, according to records of J. R. Brink. The fall last night was 2.80 inches, or the heaviest for the length of time for the entire season.

The rain began at 9:30 o'clock and continued steadily until about midnight, then slackened, but continued intermittently until about 4 o'clock this morning.

The rain fell in such torrents as to cause veritable creeks on the streets and swelled streams to bank full and more in a short time.

TO PLAY OREGON TOMORROW

Maryville Boosters Also Plan Game With Clearmont Thursday—Will Meet Stanberry Team.

The Maryville Boosters will play the base ball team of Oregon at the Normal grounds at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in a postponed game, if the ground is in condition by that time, according to announcement of Manager Walter Hanson today. A regular game with Clearmont here Thursday and one with the Tarkio team Thursday, July 22, have also been arranged.

It is believed that the Normal diamond will be in condition for playing by tomorrow afternoon if it does not rain more in the meantime and some sunshine follows today and tomorrow.

The Oregon team is considered one of the strongest teams of Holt county. It is managed by W. R. Dobyns of the Holt County Sentinel of Oregon.

The Boosters will probably line up as follows tomorrow:

Wakeman, p; Nims, c; Finch, 1b; Vaughn, 2b; E. Scott, 3b; Palfreyman, ss; Adams, lf; Still or Emmett Scott, cf; Moore, rf.

A new third baseman may go in for the game tomorrow, however.

Manager Hanson arranged yesterday for a game here with the Stanberry Red Sox in the near future. The terms were decided on definitely but the date was not set. It probably will be the first part of next month.

The Stanberry team is considered the strongest amateur team in northwest Missouri. The manager, Hawthorne, who also is their best pitcher, has won thirty-nine consecutive games pitched. Stanberry won from the Maryville Federals here yesterday by the decisive score of 23 to 4.

BURLINGTON STATION ROBBED

Pry Open Window, Break Money Drawer and Steal $2—May Be Wabash Burglars.

The Burlington passenger station here was entered some time Saturday night or early yesterday morning and about $2 in small change was taken. Entrance was gained by a window in the east side being pried open, after the catches had been torn away.

The money drawer was then broken open and the small change taken. Some conductor's slips also were taken, but they will be of no advantage to the robbers, but a loss to the railroad company. A large pry found nearby indicated it was used to gain the entrance. It is believed that the Burlington burglars were the same ones that entered the Wabash freight depot last week.

HEAVY RAIN CAUSES BURLINGTON TRAIN ANNULENT.

STREAMS DO MUCH DAMAGE TO CROPS

102 River Floods Lowlands East of Town—Great Western Has Wreck—Wabash Trains Late.

The fourth flood of the spring and summer is now on throughout Nodaway county.

As a result train service is badly impaired, telephonic communication virtually cut off to many parts of the county and roads made impassable by bridges and culverts going out or being damaged. The flood comes as a result of a rainfall of but several hours length last night, but which ranged from 2.80 inches here to as much as six inches at Bedford, Hopkins and Bolekow, it is reported.

The Burlington has been unable to get a train over this branch or the Villisca branch today, and may not be able to do so before tomorrow afternoon, if then. The Wabash westbound train service is impaired, No. 1, due here at 6 o'clock this morning, not having arrived at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Great Western Has Wreck.

The eastbound train, No. 12, went through on time, but on account of washouts at Gallatin and Pattonsburg service was tied up.

The Chicago Great Western was compelled to operate its trains over the Burlington from St. Joseph to Maryville, thence over the Wabash to Conception Junction yesterday, on account of a freight wreck near Wyeth yesterday morning. Fifteen cars went into the ditch and much track was torn up.

The line was cleared today, however, and Great Western trains are being operated on slightly tardy schedule today.

White Cloud creek is said to be higher today than for several years, and is raging through the valley, taking crops and damaging bridges and culverts badly.

All Rivers Rising Rapidly.

The 102 river, the Nodaway and the Platte are each rising rapidly this afternoon at all points, and fear of much damage is felt in many places. Though the 102 river has not reached any of the Burlington tracks in Nodaway county, the surface water flooded the tracks and washed out ballast and softened the roadbed.

The 102 river was hub deep over the state road east of town, between the two bridges, but traffic had not been tied up at 2 o'clock this afternoon. It was still rising and much drift wood was floating. Both bridges are said to be safe yet, however.

The Nodaway and the Platte are each bank full and overflowing many places.

TRIBUTE TO THE COW.

E. G. Bennett, state dairy commissioner, pays the following tribute to the cow in the 1915 Missouri farmers year book:

Little do we realize the debt we owe the cow. During the dark ages of savagery and barbarism, we find her early ancestors natives of the wild forests of the old world. As the bright rays of civilization penetrated the darkness of that early period, and man called upon the cow, she came forth from her seclusion to share in the efforts that gave us a greater nation and more enlightened people!

For two thousand years she has shown her allegiance to man, sharing alike in his prosperity and adversity, responding nobly to all that was done for her, until through her development she became an idol of the people of her native country.

In 1493 when Columbus made his second voyage to America, the cow came with him—and from that time to the present day she has been a most potent factor in making this, our own country, the greatest nation, with the highest type of womanhood and manhood history has ever known!

Her sons helped till the soil of our ancestors and slowly moved the products of the farm to market. They went with man into the dense forests of the new world, helped clear them for homes, and made cultivation possible for the coming generation—and when the tide of emigration turned westward, they hauled the belongings of the pioneer across the sun-scorched plains and over the great mountain ranges to new homes beyond.

Truly the cow is man's greatest benefactor. Hall, wind, droughts and floods may come, destroy our crops and banish our hopes, but, from what is left, the cow manufactures into the most nourishing and life-sustaining foods—and is she not life itself to the thousands of little ones stranded upon the hollow hearts and barren bosoms of modern motherhood?

We love her for her docility, her beauty and her usefulness. Her loyalty has never weakened—and should misfortune overtake us, as we become bowed down with the weight of years, we know that in the cow we have a friend that was never known to falter. She pays the debt. She saves the home. God bless the cow—little do we realize the debt we owe her!

High Cost of Building

There is much dissatisfaction in painting here and so much complaint of high cost. There is a reason. The reason is you contract with the builder and pay three profits for a cheap grade of work. One to the builder, one to the material man and one to the painter. You could save from 25 to 30 per cent by contracting direct with the painter. Our prices are, two-coat work, 14c square yard, paint included; paper hanging, 10c per roll, common lap work, border included; rooms varnished, $2.00 up; rooms enameled, $2.00 up; rooms papered, $3.50 up, paper included.

BRITISH REPULSE GERMAN ATTACK

Paris Announces Successes
Over Hostile Forces.

FRENCH ALSO MAKE PROGRESS

Compel the Dislodgment of Certain Elements of Trenches to the North of Arras—Bring Down Teuton Aviator Near Altkirsch.

WAR SUMMARY

The reports from the eastern theater of the war are meager in detail, and except for the fact that the Austro-German advance, which last week was moving swiftly, has received a check, little is known of the happenings either in Poland or Galicia. It is considered probable that the long and exhausting battle which has been waged along the extended line in Galicia has brought the opposing forces to a temporary deadlock and that they are occupied in bringing up reinforcements.

Minor attacks, both by infantry and artillery, have occurred in Belgium and France, but there have been no happenings of importance in that zone.

Paris, July 12.—The French war office gave out the following:

"The British army repulsed a German attack which had gained a temporary foothold in some elements of the first line. The Germans were also driven out by an immediate counter attack."

"In the region to the north of Arras our troops compelled the dislodgment of the enemy of certain elements of trenches where he had been able to maintain himself along a line which we originally took on July 8."

"To the north of the station of Souches an enemy counter attack delivered during the night was repulsed. Upon other sections of the front particularly violent cannonades are reported in the region of Nieuport, in the section of the Aisne as well as in Lorraine. In the forest of Le Pretre and near the Moncel bridge."

"One of our aviators sent a German aviator to earth in the neighborhood of Altkirsch. He fell within sight of our lines."

Ship Zeppelins For Attack on Rome. Rome, July 12.—German Zeppelins, according to reports received in Rome, have been transported to the Austrian coast of the Adriatic sea. Their object, it is said, is to fly across the Adriatic to Italy and to reach Rome. The Italian government has notified the Vatican and the pope has ordered that the lights of the apostolic palaces be dimmed or extinguished at an early hour. The pope also has given instructions for the removal of art treasures from places exposed to damage by possible bombs.

DANIELS FOR SUBMARINES

Secretary of Navy Favors Big Sea going Type.

Washington, July 12.—The story that he will ask congress for thirty new submarines is not quite exact. Secretary Daniels said. He wants more submarines, but will not decide how many until he sees the estimates. Then he will try to get all the government can afford.

There was also the question of type to be decided. Daniels added, he himself favoring the big sea-going pattern.

Experts, he explained, are trying to standardize a craft of the "M" type, about the size of the new German "U" boats, and if they succeed, so that parts are interchangeable, it will be possible to turn out two a week.

HAIFA IS BOMBARDED

Land Where the Disciples Taught Now Scene of War.

Jerusalem, July 12.—Mount Carmel, whose lower slopes have already been under French shell fire, is heavily entrenched by the Turks, although the mountain is sacred alike to Christian and Moslem. On the lower slopes is situated the town of Haifa. The German consulate in the town was bombarded by the French in retaliation for the Germans desecrating the graves of the soldiers of Napoleon.

Canadian Contingent Arrives.

Montreal, July 12.—Word was received here that the steamer Northland, with 2,000 Canadian troops on board, had arrived at Plymouth. Among the military units was the Second university company, which includes a number of men from McGill, Toronto, Kingston, Winnipeg, Calgary, Victoria and other Canadian universities.

Russ Attacking Along Krasnik Line. Berlin, July 12.—A dispatch from Vienna indicates the fierceness of the struggle which is in progress along the Krasnik line. The Russians have brought forward strong reinforcements, probably from the interior, and are making repeated heavy attacks.

FLOOD IMPAIRS WATER SERVICE.

Overflow Causes Damage to Pumps at Plant—Was Off Several Hours.

The rapid rise in the 102 river this morning caused the impairment of the pumps at the municipal water plant. As a result water service throughout the city was shut off from 12 o'clock today until about 4 o'clock this afternoon, when it was announced service would be resumed.

The river, though no higher than several times previously, arose so fast as to flood the plant basement before the pumps could be gotten in order to pump the flow out.

FOOD RUNS LOW IN PANAMA

Not More Than Thirty Days' Supplies in Canal Zone.

Panama, July 12.—An investigation ordered by Lieutenant Colonel Chester Harding, acting governor of the Panama canal, has developed the information that no more than thirty days' supplies of foodstuffs are available in the republic of Panama and the canal zone. The results of the investigation have been compiled into a lengthy tabulated report, which has been sent to the war department at Washington.

The investigation was made with the view of ascertaining just how long the available food supplies would last in case of trouble between the United States and some foreign power which might be able to prevent the importation of foodstuffs into the Panama republic and thus the canal zone.

CHICAGO STRIKE SETTLED

Chicago, July 12.—The allied building construction material interests lifted the ban on the delivery of material.

That was the first important effect of the settling of the carpenters' strike. It means an immediate resumption of work in Chicago's building industry. The building industry in Chicago and Cook county has been paralyzed, and $30,000,000 worth of construction work has been tied up since early in April on account of the strike of carpenters and other trades.

GIRLS GIVE ATTRACTIVE PLAY.

Will Keep Tent at Maryville Chautauqua With Money Made.

The home talent play "Lucia's Lover," a farce comedy presented Friday night by the H. H. club at the Christian church of Pickering was well attended and was splendidly acted and staged. While the audience assembled a musical program on the reginaphone was given by Miss Hazel Burks, and between acts Misses Edith Jones and Hazel Burks also gave a clever reading.

The first and second scenes were supposed to take place in Polly's room in a girls' boarding school, and the third act in the reception hall of the same place. The play had entirely to do with Lucia's love affairs. The title role was very creditably played by Miss Stella Wilson. Miss Nellie Morford made a very charming Polly, whose chief reason for fame was her rescue of "Chauncey," a kitten, who deserves special mention for its perfect acting.

Miss Eugenia Hull as Edith, who was too pretty to work except with her brain, and Miss Myrtle Null as Katherine, who was studying dressmaking, were much applauded for their work. Miss Bessie Ashford as Mildred, who exploited practical domestic ideas, and Miss Eva Burks as the stern and much dreaded teacher, Miss McGregor, acted exceptionally fine in their parts. Miss Ida Bosch made an attractive Martha, and won great favor while presiding as hostess of a chafing dish supper and 10 o'clock p. m. kimono party.

The club, which is composed of nine girls, will use the proceeds, which amounted to $17.50, towards keeping a tent at the Maryville Chautauqua grounds for the week.

EYE STRAIN

The press, both lay and medical, have been devoting considerable space to an explanation of the term eye strain, its discovery, cause, effect and its relief. In view of the many able articles that have appeared on the subject, one is surprised to encounter so many who have failed to grasp the optometrist's meaning of the term, because to the optometrist the world is indebted for the discovery that a person may have perfectly normal, even hyper-normal, vision and suffer intensely from eye strain. In fact, paradoxical as it may seem, only people with good or normal vision can have eye strain, because good vision by no means is an indication of good eyes, since one may and does secure perfect vision through very imperfect eyes, by straining; and this strain in almost every instance is an unconscious one. Here then we have the optometrist's definition of eye strain as that condition of eyes where such defects as far-sight, near-sight, astigmatism and their complications are present to such an amount that by constant, but unconscious, effort the eye muscles partially or wholly overcome these defects, thus securing good vision, which could not be obtained because of these defects if the eyes were at rest. To illustrate: you have seen the photographer adjust the focusing tube of his camera, working it in and out until he gets an exact image or focus on the ground glass, when he is ready to take the picture. His adjusting the tube to get the proper focus on the ground glass is exactly what defective eyes perform to get a focus on the retina. But this adjustment calls for exertion on the part of the eye muscles, which exertion cannot be applied unless an extra amount of nerve force is supplied; it follows that the part or parts of the system from which the extra amount of nerve force has been drawn must suffer by being depleted of the proper amount to perform its functions. Hence the reflex troubles, headache, nausea, stomach trouble, nervousness, insomnia and a host of others directly traceable to eye strain, but which yield automatically when the optometrist removes the occasion for strain—the eyes—Health.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.

Oil King Celebrates Seventy-sixth Birthday Under Guard.

John D. Rockefeller celebrated his seventy-sixth birthday quietly at his home in Pocantico Hills, the only interesting incident being a visit from Anton von Kluge, who came all the way from Chicago with a birthday cake for the oil king. Von Kluge was very much disappointed after his long journey because he could not see Mr. Rockefeller and deliver the cake personally. Mr. Rockefeller has been greatly disturbed since the shooting of J. Pierpont Morgan by Frank Holt, and because of the attempt on the Wall Street financier's life he canceled his trip to Cleveland and closed his grounds tight. Mr. Rockefeller chose to lock himself up in his home because he feared some crank might appear, and when the news was flashed to the hills that Von Kluge had arrived word was sent to the guards to be on the alert.

BRITISH VESSELS
WARNED OF PERILWireless Flashed to Mule Ships to Look Out For Bombs.

Washington, July 12.—Warning to look out for bombs concealed in their holds was flashed from the naval wireless tower at Arlington to the British steamships Howth Head and Baron Napier, both loaded with cargoes of mules for the British army, which cleared July 8.

Sending of the warning was ordered by Secretary Daniels upon the receipt of a message from a New Orleans newspaper, saying a letter to that paper, signed "Pearce," indicated that explosives had been placed aboard those vessels.

The radio message was sent broadcast over the sea and even if it is not picked up directly by the Howth Head or Baron Napier, some other ship in the neighborhood may relay it.

RAILROAD HEADS TESTIFY

Declare Western Rates Are Lower Than In East.

Chicago, July 12.—Eben E. McLeod, chairman of the Western Passenger association; E. E. Bevington, secretary of the Transcontinental Passenger association; and W. J. Cannon, assistant general passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, were witnesses in the western passenger rate hearing.

Their testimony was similar in fundamentals, although they introduced individual figures to impress the same points. These were essentially that experience since 1907 has shown that reduced fares have thrown an added and disproportionate burden on other traffic; and that in the low fare states involved in the hearing, fares are lower than in the east, where the railroads with better rates also benefit by greater density of population.

Admiral Is Retired.

Washington, July 12.—Admiral Cowles, commanding the Asiatic fleet, was retired on account of age. Captain A. F. Fichteler of the Newport naval war college now becomes a rear admiral and probably will be assigned to a command in the Atlantic fleet.

VIEW OF BRITISH PRESS UPON NOTE

London, July 12.—The German reply to the American note, a summary of which appears in the London papers, is the subject of general discussion throughout England, and again the question is asked, "What will America do?"

The views held here are indicated in the newspaper headings which describe the reply as "An Amazing Offer," "Impudent Claims," "Hypocritical Reply."

No Concessions at All.

Paris, July 12.—The official German note regarding the Lusitania incident contains nothing in the nature of concessions which the delay in its preparation had seemed to indicate, says the Temps.

COMPARES GAME TO LIFE

Rev. R. L. Finch Considers Living and Base Ball Last Night at Christ Church.

"Getting Home from Third" was the subject of a sermon given last night by the Rev. Robert Lyle Finch at the First Christian church, in which the speaker used the national sport as a comparison for the real game of living.

The topic was skillfully handled by Mr. Finch, who employed forceful and potent expressions, saying in part:

"In the thirty-fourth chapter of Deuteronomy, the fifth verse, you will find the record of the death of Moses. Called to be the captain of God's chosen people, he proved his right to leadership through many campaigns, until at the waters of Meribah, in the wilderness of Zin, he struck the rock instead of commanding the waters to come forth as Jehovah had directed, and then and there forfeited his right to the promised land. Moses obeyed the rules of the game until in sight of the final victory, when he trusted in his own strength, and therefore may be said to have 'died on third'."

"The value of well directed play to the American people can scarcely be estimated. In the great centers of population it has come to be recognized that supervised play is essential to the development of the child life along moral lines. The time is not far distant when communities like our own city of Maryville will count themselves lax in public interest if they do not provide trained leaders for the child life upon the playground."

"Professor Sargent of Harvard university says that by actual measurement the physical manhood and womanhood of America has developed remarkably since the introduction of the outdoor games into our high schools and colleges. The Englishman has been traditionally an open air enthusiast, hence much of the strength of the nation. There is therefore no apology necessary for the interest which the American business man is taking in these days in such sports as tennis, golf and base ball. Played according to the rules, by men who insist on being gentlemen at all times, in the great open air theaters where players and spectators alike are benefited, base ball is the real sport of kings."

Life the Great Game.

"For, dear friends, life is only a great game after all, and base ball is only a picture of the game of life. There are the two sides to both games, the offensive and the defensive. In base ball the side 'at bat' is seeking to make the scores that shall give them the victory, the defensive side is seeking to 'put them out'."

"The most important aspect of life's game is man's relationship to God. Through the fatherly goodness of God every man and woman is in the 'line-up,' and we all have our chance to 'come to bat.' So far as we are concerned the final victory will depend upon how we use our chances."

"All honor to the player who reaches 'first' base in the game of life—the attainment of a moral character. That is a worthy achievement, but the player can easily 'die' on first if he imagines God is satisfied with that alone. Double honor to the individual who reaches 'second base'—the belief in God as Creator, and Father of humankind. But the veriest agnostic has such belief, yet 'dies' on second. There are those who have reached 'third base'—belief in the person and purpose of Jesus Christ, who must languish there because they have not accepted the means by which they shall be able to reach the 'home' station. More people reach 'third' successfully in the game of life and then 'die' there, than ever do in a game of base ball. To 'get home from third' is the stumbling block in the pathway of many people."

man kind. But the veriest agnostic has such belief, yet 'dies' on second. There are those who have reached 'third base'—belief in the person and purpose of Jesus Christ, who must languish there because they have not accepted the means by which they shall be able to reach the 'home' station. More people reach 'third' successfully in the game of life and then 'die' there, than ever do in a game of base ball. To 'get home from third' is the stumbling block in the pathway of many people."

"You can reach 'home' only according to the rules of the game. In base ball the opposition may give some assistance through an 'error' or a 'force,' but the devil will never help the human soul home to heaven."

Every Runner Can Reach Home.
"But by the grace of God there is a way by which every 'runner' in this game of life may reach the 'home' plate. Nineteen centuries ago a crisis arose in the affairs of men. Emerging from ages of darkness, man but feebly groped his way in the darkness of sin and superstition. At such a time there strode into the social and political and religious life of his day a mighty warrior. He called Himself the Son of God. They killed Him for saying that then, but the world believes it now. Jesus Christ offered Himself as a sacrifice—with all reverence I say he offered Himself as a sacrifice—pinch hitter in order that mankind might have life at home and that life eternal. He died for us, yet He lives. And that sacrifice was made for the players in life's great game today, as well as for those of His day. "Obedience to the rules that were laid down by this Master Player will bring us safely home at last. We must touch all the bases, and become 'obedient unto the heavenly vision,' as was Paul and Matthew and Elijah. Moses 'died' in sight of home and thereby became the most illustrious example of one who almost 'scored.' Anyone of us may become sure of the victory by absolute obedience to the spirit and rules of the game."

TO CONTROL THE APPLE BORER.

Means by Which Orchardists May Rid Their Trees of Wide-Spread Pest Explained.

"Worming" and painting the trunks of the trees are recommended to owners of apple orchards as efficient methods of dealing with the roundheaded apple-tree borer in a new farmer's bulletin of the U. S. department of agriculture. A heavy application of some paint that will not injure the trees but will remain in an unbroken coat on the bark for two or three months, is effective in preventing the female from laying her eggs in the tree, and greatly reduces the amount of worming, or the removal of the insects with a knife and wire, that must be done.

The roundheaded apple-tree borer, the most destructive of a number of similar pests, lays its eggs in or under the bark of apple trees. After hatching the larvae feed upon the inner bark and wood to such an extent that the tree is seriously weakened or killed. The pest is found over the whole of the eastern portion of the United States and as far west as Nebraska, Kansas and New Mexico.

In addition to fruit trees, it feeds on service, wild crab and mountain ash trees, which makes it advisable for orchardists to remove these varieties for a distance of at least a hundred yards from their orchard.

The female lays her eggs, one at a time, in an incision she has made in the bark, usually just above the surface of the ground. About 15 or 20 days later the eggs hatch and the larvae appear. When full grown these are nearly an inch and a half in length.

They first attack the inner bark, eating out broad, more or less circular galleries and thrusting out through small holes in the bark castings which form little heaps of reddish wood fragments around the base of the tree. During the winter the borers are quiet but early in the following spring they attack the solid wood, while some of them work their way up the trunk. These last spend one more winter in the tree and the next, having passed through the pupal stage, dig their way out and emerge as adult beetles. Three years are required for the insect to complete its development from egg to adult.

Ordinarily, the beetle lives about 40 or 50 days. It is about three-fourths of an inch in length, light brown in color above, with two broad white bands, joined in front, extending the full length of the back; the underparts and front of the head are white.

The females rarely fly any considerable distance, so that if the immediate vicinity of an orchard can be kept free from them, there is little danger of a serious infestation.

The most common method of ridding an orchard of these pests is to cut away the bark sufficiently to trace the burrows made by the borer. A hooked wire is then inserted into the burrow and the insect pulled out. If made with care, the wound in the tree caused by this process will heal readily.

The castings at the base of the tree serve as an indication of the presence of the borers. Where the burrows are curved or obstructed in some way so that the wire can not be inserted, cotton batting dipped in carbon bisulphid should be inserted and the hole then plugged with moist earth. The gas from the carbon bisulphid will penetrate all parts of the burrow and kill the borer.

In addition to worming, as this process is called, paint is often used to prevent the beetles laying their eggs. Pure white lead and raw linseed oil, mixed rather thick, will not injure the trees, and when applied to young, smooth bark, will form a protective coat during the egg-laying season.

It is probable that this is a more effective method than wrapping the trees with building paper, cotton batting, cloth or other materials sometimes used for this purpose.

Before painting, however, the earth should be removed from the base of the tree for a depth of from 3 to 4 inches. The surface of the trunk thus exposed should be first scraped and painted and the earth then replaced. This is necessary, for the beetle occasionally lays her eggs under instead of above the ground.
